Sun Yanhui

Position： Senior Partner

Practice Areas： Corporate and Compliance　Civil and Commercial Litigation and Arbitration　Banking and Finance

Languages： Chinese

Number： (86-10)57096158

Firm Consultation Hotline： 400-700-3900

E-mail： sunyanhui@king-capital.com

Office： Beijing

Professional Experience

Sun Yanhui graduated from the Law School of Jilin University in 1990 and started to work as a lawyer since 1992. She is now a senior partner of Beijing King & Capital Law Firm. With nearly three decades of experience in legal practice, she has undertaken hundreds of civil and commercial litigation cases, including a large number of difficult and complicated ones. As one of the first to have received the securities lawyer qualifications in the country, she engaged in the recovery and disposal of non-performing assets of several large asset companies such as Huarong Asset Management Company; handled due diligence reviews over companies including Intellectual Property Publishing Co., Ltd. and completed registration for fund companies; worked on compulsory liquidation of the China Electronic Commerce Association initiated by the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, and undertook the bankruptcy and reorganization of Heilongjiang Huixiong Real Estate Development Co., Ltd. Before she started practicing, she had worked in the Department of Justice of a province, and then worked in the Northeast Office of a Beijing-based central enterprise as legal affairs specialist. Upon practicing in Beijing, she worked part-time as the deputy general manager of a real estate development company in charge of legal affairs and human resources.

Representative Cases and Projects

Case of a private lending dispute between a thermal company and Ma XX, which was subsequently filed by the public security due to suspected false litigation and put under compulsory measures;

Case of a project payment dispute between an intelligent technology company in Beijing (a Nasdaq listed company) and a mining group;

Case of a dispute over an equity investment agreement (a VAM) between a fund company and a cattle husbandry company, which was the first of its kind in Heilongjiang Province;

Case of a dispute over joint development and equity between Beijing Capital Group and a real estate company;

Case of a construction project dispute between China Coal International Technical Cooperation Corporation and a petroleum authority;

Case of a construction contract dispute between JSGC Co., Ltd. and a heating company;

As the project leader, undertook a real estate consolidation and reorganization project involving a debt of over RMB 6 billion;

Undertook the bankruptcy and reorganization case of a logistics company in Henan and six of its affiliated companies, involving the creditor's rights of several financial institutions;

As the project leader, undertook the compulsory liquidation of a juridical association, which was the first of its kind in Beijing.

Education

Lawyer Sun Yanhui graduated from the Law School, Jilin University in 1990 with an LLB degree.