Working experience

Zhang Qiming is the senior partner of Beijing King & Capital Law Firm. He once worked in a People's Procuratorate in Beijing as the deputy director of the public prosecution division and was awarded the titles of "Beijing Top Ten Public Prosecutors" and "Beijing Excellent Public Prosecutors". Engaged in criminal law business for 17 years, his main businesses include criminal defense and agency and the prevention and control of corporate criminal legal risk. He has handled many cases of duty crimes and financial crimes supervised by the central or provincial levels that have significant national influence, and handled the first dangerous goods incident case, the first "rat trading" case, and the first forced labor case in Beijing, etc. In those cases, many were decided not to approve, to withdraw, not to prosecute or to light or mitigate punishment. Lawyer Zhang Qiming has been engaged in research for many years on the prevention and control of legal risk in internet finance, big data and blockchain and has assisted the government in its verification work. He has taught at the Agricultural Bank of China, China CITIC Bank, Hua Xia Bank, etc., authored the book "Work Samples of Financial Crime Prosecution", published dozens of academic papers in various journals, and served as a part-time lecturer at Communication University of China. The CCTV, Beijing TV, Legal Daily, Phoenix.com, Tencent.com and many other media have interviewed and reported on Zhang Qiming and the cases handled by him.
