Zhao Wen Yan

Position： Senior Partner

Languages： Chinese

Number： 010-58173706

Firm Consultation Hotline： 400-700-3900

E-mail： zhaowenyan@king-capital.com

Office： Beijing

Professional Experience

He has served as a commercial judge of a middle court in Beijing, the head of a consumer protection organization of a branch of a Fortune 500 joint-stock bank, the legal director and director of the audit and compliance department of a second-tier company of a Fortune 500 centralized enterprise, and has nearly ten years of civil and commercial trial experience and many years of experience in the work of senior managers of enterprises, and has had working exchanges in the Supreme People's Court and the Basic People's Court of Beijing Municipality. He is familiar with the business operation and legal work in major civil and commercial litigation, arbitration, execution and many other fields such as energy, chemical industry, real estate, finance and disposal of non-performing assets, and has nearly 20 years of trial and legal work experience in corporate equity, investment and merger and acquisition, state-owned property rights transactions, bankruptcy and liquidation, personnel resettlement, financial transactions, etc. He is able to quickly and accurately understand and grasp the specific needs and focuses of the corresponding clients, and think about the problems from the angles of external attorneys and internal lawyers, and formulate appropriate dispute solutions. In recent years, he has served as sole or presiding arbitrator in a number of arbitrations. In recent years, Mr. Zhao has served as sole or presiding arbitrator in more than 100 cases, and is an expert in dispute resolution in the fields of corporate equity disputes, construction disputes, real estate disputes, financial transaction disputes, contract disputes, etc. Mr. Zhao also specializes in handling difficult cases. Mr. Zhao also specializes in handling difficult and complex commercial litigation, arbitration and enforcement cases, and has served many central enterprises, state-owned enterprises, private enterprises, listed companies and financial institutions, assisting them in their litigation, arbitration and enforcement cases before the Supreme People's Court (including circuit courts), people's courts at all levels in Beijing and throughout the country, and major arbitration institutions such as the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC), Shenzhen International Arbitration Court (SIAC) and Shanghai International Arbitration Center (SIAC). We have been involved in relevant litigation, arbitration and enforcement cases and achieved good results.

He has rich experience and service experience in the fields of legal services for listed companies, labor disputes, corporate governance, civil and commercial litigation, arbitration, enforcement, criminal cases, disposal of state-owned assets, etc., and now serves a number of state-owned enterprises, private enterprises and Internet companies.

Professional Appointments and Affiliations

Mr. Zhao is also an arbitrator of many domestic arbitration institutions such as Beijing Arbitration Commission, Shanghai Arbitration Commission, Nanjing Arbitration Commission, Mianyang Arbitration Commission, Hainan International Arbitration Court, Beihai International Arbitration Court, etc., and he is also a mediator of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and the Beijing Association for the Promotion of Multi-faceted Mediation Development.

Honors

Mr. Zhao's Research on the Articulation Mechanism between Arbitration and Litigation was awarded the Third Prize in the 19th Academic Symposium of Beijing Municipal Court; and Dilemma of Shareholders of Limited Liability Companies and Their Legal Remedies was awarded the Second Prize in the 20th Academic Symposium of Beijing Municipal Court and the Third Prize in the 20th Academic Symposium of the National Courts. He has published a number of academic papers in Beijing Arbitration, Arbitration and Law, and Company Law Review. He has co-authored books such as “Lectures on New Company Law”, “Overview of Overseas Company Law Topics”, “Design of New Company Law System”, “58 Cases of Contract Disputes”, and “Judging Ideas and Judging Rules of Common Civil Disputes”. During his work in the Beijing court system, he was honored with two individual commendations, one individual third-class merit award, and the first “Capital Learning Star” in Beijing; during his work in a central enterprise, he was honored with the title of “Outstanding Legal Director”.

Education

Master of Civil and Commercial Law, China University of Political Science and Law