Professional Experience

Lawyer Jin Jie has previously served as a senior judge and senior prosecutor. While in the procuratorate, he has engaged for many years in criminal prosecution, anti-tort and anti-malfeasance prosecution as well as anti-corruption and bribery investigative work. While in the intermediate court, he engaged in civil and commercial judgment and research work, accumulating a wealth of practical legal experience in handling important, complex and difficult cases. Blending theory and practice across the three occupations of judge, prosecutor and lawyer, Jin Jie has synthesized a criminal defense strategy and experience which organically blends the three strands of thinking from the point of view of the prosecution, defense and judge. He specializes in criminal defense and legal representation in civil and commercial cases, being familiar with various types of contract-related arbitration and litigation, tort litigation, marriage and family litigation, corporate litigation, real-estate litigation, and litigation arising from various types of construction project disputes including railway and road construction. Fang Yuan Magazine named him a “trivalent legal talent” covering the prosecution, defense and judge, as well as one of “King & Capital’s Eight Talented Criminal Defenders”.
