Professional Experience

Since resigning from public office to join King & Capital in 1995, lawyer Wang Jiuchuan has specialized in criminal defense and amassed 25 years' experience in handling criminal cases. A rather high portion of the cases he handled are difficult and complex affairs. At the same time, he is well-versed in such fields as company law, and possessed of a rich experience in handling compound legal disputes and organizing large teams to provide legal services.

He has appeared as main defendant and counsel in significant and important cases such as the misappropriation of public funds by LI xxx, chairman of the China Real Estate Development Group (Zhengzhou) Co., Ltd.; the case of murder committed by Harbin billionaire WANG Wenxiang; the organizing and leading a mafia-style organization by CHEN Mingliang from Chongqing; the misappropriation of public funds and acceptance of bribes by Director-General YANG Guangcheng of the Yunnan Provincial Department of Transport; the smuggling of ordinary goods by a well-known transnational company. Successively provided criminal defense and criminal compliance consultations for many World 500 companies and well-known domestic Chinese enterprises, as well as consulting for them on retainer. Some of his classic cases have been reported or collated in a classic case database.

While in practice, Wang Jiuchuan engages in research in such areas as modes, techniques and strategies of litigation as well as lawyers' professional development. He also organizes and participates in many legal, political and other social activities.
